

REMARKS/ARGUMENTS

Status of the Claims

The claims which the Examiner asserts lack unity under PCT Rule 13.1 have been cancelled without prejudice. The applicant will file a divisional application with respect to such claims in the not too distant future.

New claims 63-76 have been added which more or less correspond to original claims 2-15 originally filed and prosecuted in this application, but the independent claims now include limitations along the lines as those added to claim 1 herein.

Claim 1 has been amended to more clearly differentiate from the prior art cited in the official action. As amended, claim 1 now recites that: "said plurality of image items being made available to said content retailer for public merchandizing at said content retailer web site by at least one third party content provider" and wherein the at least one print product order by the retail customer "includes at least one of said image items made available for merchandizing by said at least one third party content provider."

This amendment clearly differentiates claim 1 from the primary reference cited by the Examiner, namely Garfinkle, which is concerned with reproducing images on behalf of a photographer as opposed to images "made available to said content retailer for public merchandizing at said content retailer web site by at least one third party content provider" as recited in amended claim 1.

Reconsideration is respectfully requested.
